Acknowledgements

1. Applicants' amendment filed December 14, 2007 is acknowledged. Accordingly, claims 1-25 remain pending. Claims 1, 14, and 22 have been amended.
2. This paper is assigned Paper No. 20000311 by the Examiner.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is the Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.
4. Regarding the claimed terms, the Examiner notes that a "general term must be understood in the context in which the inventor presents it." In re Glaug 283 F.3d 1335, 1340, 62 USPQ2d 1151, 1154 (Fed. Cir. 2002). Therefore the Examiner must interpret the claimed terms as found on pages 1-21 of the specification. Clearly almost all the general terms in the claims may have multiple meanings. So where a claim term "is susceptible to various meanings, . . . the inventor's lexicography must prevail" Id. Using these definitions for the claims, the claimed invention was not reasonably found in the prior art.
5. With the above in mind, the primary reference Rickard et al (US 6,016,483)("Rickard") discloses as previously discussed. Rickard however does not teach at least detecting a locked/cross condition of the market prior to opening, and removing the locked/cross condition to allow opening. Moreover, the missing claimed elements from Rickard are not found in a reasonable number of reference(s). Yet even if the missing claimed elements were found in a reasonable number of references, a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made would not have been motivated to include these missing elements in an embodiment in the Rickard because: normally the removal of trading interests so that the market can have an orderly open is not done in an automated manner but rather by the owners of the interests themselves.

6. For the above reasons, independent claims 1, 14, and 22 and their dependent claims 2-13, 15-21 and 23-25 are deemed allowable.

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Cristina Owen Sherr whose telephone number is 571-272-6711. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30-5:00 Monday through Friday.

8. If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Andrew J. Fischer can be reached on 571-272-6779. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
